COUNCIL HOLDS BRIEF SESSION

Police Commissioner and Members of School Board Elected.

ROUTINE BUSINESS.

Committees Fail to Bring in Ordinances for New School Building and Modern Truck House.

The volume of business brought before the Council at the regular meeting last night was small, and that of a general nature, which will be found in the official proceedings.

Robert E. Knight was elected Police Commissioner to succeed himself, he having no opponents for the position. J. Gilbert Cox, from the First Ward, Harry Kirk, from the Third Ward, and T. C. Howard, from the Fourth Ward, were re-elected school trustees, and C. W. Wattles was chosen a trustee from the Second ward to succeed Alfred H. Thomson, who has removed his residence to the Third Ward.

Board of Aldermen.

All the members of the Board of Aldermen were present, and the business presented was, generally, transacted without debate.

The committee on light had reported in favor of placing arc lights at Cameron and Pitt and Cameron and Washington streets. The committee in their report recommended the removal of the present gas lights from these points.

When the report came in from the Common Council, that board having adopted it by a unanimous vote, Mr Brill stated that the committee on light had not been of one accord in the matter, and three members had voted to present the report which had been read. Mr. Brill further stated that while placing arc lights at every street intersection would prove a great desideratum, the city at present was not in a position to enter into such an expenditure, as it would entail an outlay of about six thousand dollars annually Messrs. Hill, Fitzgerald and Summers agreed with Mr. Brill.

There was further interchange of opinion during which Mr. Ballenger stated that in the era of automobiles the proposed lights were essential to prevent accidents.

Mr. Hill saw no force in this argument, as the headlights of automobiles were stronger than electric lights.

A vote was finally taken on the adoption of the committee's report and it resulted in a tie, as follows: Ayes, Messrs. Ballenger, Field, Ogden and President Marbury—4. Noes, Messrs. Hill, Brill, Fitzgerald and Summers—4.

A petition of the Slaymaker-Schneider Corporation for permission to renew the roof of a house on the north side of Oronoco street, between Columbus and Alfred, was presented by Mr. Ogden of the street committee. The petition had an adverse endorsement of the committee. Mr. Ogden stated that the work of renewing the roof had been started without a permit and as the house was within the fire limits the petitioners had been told that their application had been rejected.

After an interchange of opinion, the report of the committee was adopted.

Later the aldermen proceeded to the chamber of the Common Council for the purpose of participating in the election of a Police Commissioner and School Trustees, and upon their return adjourned.

Common Council.

Thirteen members of the Common Council were present last night, Messrs. Smith, Monroe and Bryant being the absent ones.

The committee on light reported favorably on the petition asking electric arc lamps at Washington and Cameron and at Pitt and Cameron streets and further recommending that four gas lamps at or near these corners be removed. The report was adopted.

Mr. Birrell, as a member of the committee on conference and on the proposed new school and engine house, explained that through a misunderstanding a report had been promised last night that the corporation Attorney had reported that he needed more time to prepare the ordinances.

On recommendation of the committee on light a gas light was ordered to be placed on Duke street between West and Payne.

A resolution increasing the salary of the clerk of gas to $1,400 was referred to the committee on finance and light.

A petition asking for electric arc lamps at the corner of Alfred and Montgomery and Princess and Union streets was refered to the committee on light.

Mr. Birrell called attention to a resolution that he had introduced, and which was passed some months ago directing the City Engineer to cause the removal of loose bricks, etc. from roofs, fire walls and chimneys, and asked why this work had never been done. He continued with a lengthy half eulogy and half criticism of the City Engineer, during which that official came in. On the request of the chair, the City Engineer stated that the resolution directed him to make an examination of every chimney and fire wall in the city with a view of having corrected any dangerous conditions that may exist in connection with the same. The engineer stated that this was four or five months' work for one man, and with the pressing of street and sewer work he had been unable to attend to it but expected to start as soon as the weather brought to a stop the street and sewer work.

Mr. Birrell sad that hs resolution did not provide for any such thing, but in order that the engineer should see that fire walls dangerous to pedestrians should be torn down or repaired. This led to an extended discussion which at times was distinctly personal and very humorous, which was ended by Mr. Williams getting the original resolution and reading it. It provided for the examination of all chimneys, roofs and fire walls located in the city. No action was taken.

On motion of Mr. Williams the Aldermen wehe invited to join council in the election of a Police Commissioner and School Trustees, and in the joint session which followed the following were elected without opposition:

School Trustees: First Ward, J. Gilbert Cox.
Second Ward—C. W. Wattles.
Third Ward—H. D. Kirk.
Fourth Ward—T. C. Howard
Police Commissioner Second Ward—R E Knight

All of these succeeded themselves save Mr. Wattles in the second ward, who succeeded Mr. A. H. Thomson, Mr. Thomson having removed from the ward and not being eligible.

BRITAIN WARNS HUERTA.

Says Attitude of County May be of Great Moment to Him.

London, Nov. 12. — A significant warning to President Huerta was issued yesterday by the Westminster Gazettee, the government newspaper Commenting on Premier Asquith's Guild Hall speech in which he made it plain that no antagonism exists between England and the United States in regard to Mexico the Gazette says:

"The fea that any valid election—in the sense in which democratic or constitutional countries understand the word—can be held in Mexico is probably diplomatic fiction, but the electoral test was of General Huerta's own choosing and it is well to keep him reminded that his failure to conform to its results leaves all governments free to reconsider their act of recognition"

"Briefly, the limits of British action are that the British government should not put itself in a position of making protests which, in default of forcible action, might be flouted and defied. But diplomacy has other resources than mere force, and provisional President Huerta may easily find that the attitude of this country is in a variety of ways a matter of great moment to him."

CONFERENCE OF DAUGHTERS

Hold Session in Hall of House of Delegates at Richmond.

PLEASANT FEATURES.

Meeting in New Orleans — Ninety Thousand Members in Thirty-Three States of the Union.

Richmond, Nov. 12.—The annual State conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, lasting two days, began in the hall of the House of Delegates. The delegates are the guests of the Commonwealth Chapter, which has arranged several entertainments in their honor. One of the leading features of the conference was the presence of Mrs. William Cummings Story, of New York, president-general of the national association, who delivered the principal address at the first session.

There will be a tea in the John Marshall House this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock in honor of the delegates to the D. A. R. Conference. The members of the house committee will act as hostesses of the occasion, and the receiving line will include Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mrs. E. V. Valentine, Mrs. William Ruffin Cox, Mrs. J. Enders Robinson, Mrs. William C. Bentley and Mrs. W. G. Stanard. Mrs. William Cummings Story, Mrs. W. F. Maupin and Mrs. Benjamin Purcell have also been invited to receive. Mrs. Story was the guest of honor at a handsome luncheon given today by the D. A. R. Conference at Murphy's Hotel.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 2.—"Loyalty to the truth of Confederate history" was declared the chief motive of the United Daughters of the Confederacy by Mrs. Aleander B. White, president-general, in her address to the annual convention of the organization here last night.

President-General White devoted her attention chiefly to a detailed recital of the work already done by the Daughters of Confederacy toward commemorating the bravery and achievements of the Southern soldiers. She called attention to the fact that the United Daughters of the Confederacy, formed in 1894, already has a membership of more than 90,000, with active chapters in thirty-three States. She said that every member is of strictly Southern lineage.

AMERICANS IN PERIL.

Heavy Fighting in Progress in Tuxpam, Mexico.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Nov. 12.—Lives of six American citizens in Tuxpam are in danger, owing to the heavy fighting in the town. United States sailors may be ordered, under arms, to rescue them.

Rear Admiral Fletcher, in command of the United States naval forces in Mexican waters received wireless information from Rear Admiral Clifford J. Boush, aboard the Louisiana, now at Tuxpam, telling him of the plight of the six Americans.

Twenty United States citizens, Boush said have escaped from the danger zone, but they left the others behind. The fighting became more furious soon after the party of twenty got away, he said in the wireless message, and fear is entertained for the other Americans.

In his wireless message Rear Admiral Boush said he hoped to rescue the endangered Americans. Furthe details of his plans are lacking, but it is believed, if necessary, he will detach men from the Louisiana and the gunboat Wheeling, also at Tuxpam, for service on land.

In his wireless to Admiral Fletcher, Boush said he probably would take the six refugees aboard the Louisiana and keep them out of harm's way, if that were found necessary.

The Louisian and Wheeling are in Tuxpam waters now as the result of pleas for protection sent by Arthur C. Payne, United States consular agent in the city.

Concerted attack against Tuxpam by the constitutionalists is expected at any moment. The constitutionaliss are strong in numbers and well armed, and apparently better equipped than their federal enemies.

Payne in a message to the United States consul here today, estimated there are at least 1,000 men under the constitutional colors ready to attack and try to take Tuxpam.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Right to Tax Richmond Utilities by State Argued and Submitted.

Richmond, Nov. 12.—The State supreme Court of Appeals convened yesterday for the fall term with all five justices sitting and a voluminous docket ahead of the tribunal.

Four cases were argued and submitted yesterday as follows:

Gayle & Eason vs. Commonwealth. Submitted on briefs.

Lewis vs. Commonwealth. Argued by N. T. Green, for the appellant and by Attorney General Williams for the appellee.

Garnett and Cosby vs. Commonwealth. Dismissed as improvidently awarded.

The latter case involves the question of whether municipal-owned utilities from which the city derives a revenue, are exempt from taxation by the State, and Richmond gas and water departments as well as the city auditorium are included in the equation.

The cases in call today are: Commonwealth vs. Lynchburg Y. M. C. A. Commonwealth at rel of Dowden vs. Richmond & Rappahannock River railway company et al; The Buchanan company vs. The heirs of Smythe & Banks, etc.; Bowles' Admr. vs. Virginia Soapstone company.

The Lynchburg case is somewhat similiar to the Richmond case argued yesterday, involving the right of the State to tax the Y. M. C. A. property in Lynchburg.

In the Dowden case Richmonders will recall the now-famous transfer controversy between citizens of Henrico county; the Richmond & Rappahannock River Railway Company and the Virginia Railway & Power company, invovling the matter of transfers between the city and county lines. The matter was threshed out before the State corporation commission and an adverse verdict to the petitioners handed down with one dissenting opinion. The case now goes to the highest tribunal for final adjudication, and there is no little interest especially among the citizens of Henrico county, in the outcome.

METHODISTS IN DANVILLE

Annual Conference Opens Today—Bishop Collins Denny Presides.

CITY IS HOSPITABLE.

Committee Will Report on Charges of Immorality Brought Against Danville Pastor

Danville, Va., Nov. 12—Danville belongs to Methodist hosts attending the one hundred and thirty-first session of Virginia annual conference. Belated trains yesterday brought several hundred delegates and visitors to the city and when Bishop Denny entered the pulpit last night the great auditorium of the Main street Church was filled with an audience eager to enjoy the always interesting exercises of a Methodist Conference.

The citizens of Danville without regard to denominational affiliations, have opened their homes for the entertainment of the conference and the prospect is that a most pleasant session will be enjoyed. Proverbial for its charming homes, its cultured people and its cordial hospitality the ministers and laymen in attendance upon the conference anticipate a delightful stay in Danville.

The first session of the body was organized and the machinery set in motion to expedite the transaction of future business

It was with hearty spirit and harmonious unison that the great congregation sang the old hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and with reverent attention they heard Bishop Denny read the 103rd Psalm and lead in prayer for the presence of God the guidance of the Divine Spirit.

The roll was called by the secretary of the session, Dr. S. S. Lambeth and a large majority of the members of the body responded to their names.

Dr. Lambeth was elected secretary and upon his nomination Dr. B. F. Lipscomb and Rev. F. L. Wells as sistant secretaries.

After the organization of the conference the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by Bishop Denny assisted by Rev. Joseph H. Amiss, Dr. Wm. E. Judkins, Dr. W. B. Beauchampe and Rev. B. M. Beckham It was an inspiring and impressive service—this sacramental service which brought the members of the conference together at the table of their Lord, while the congregation sang with great spirit stirring hymns of consecration

After the creation of the various committees to which the various interests of the conference will be referred to after the submission of various reports fro mthe connectional offices to their appropriate committees and after the chair had named a committee to hear the appeal of Rev. D. P. Tate a local preacher, under charge of immorality, the conference adjourned to meet today.

CONDITIONS AT KIEFF.

Any Outbreak Against Jews to be Suppressed.

Kief Russia, Nov. 12. — Though hundreds of troops, continually patrolling the streets, have thus far prevented any anti-Semitic outrages following the acquital of Mendel Beiliss, the Jews of this city and the surrounding country are panic-stricken as a result of threats today by leaders of the Black Hundred.

Hundreds of families are fleeing to other European countries or to America. Beiliss and his wife and children have been reunited for the first time since he was accused of killing Andrew Yushinsky for blood ritual purposes.

In his release from prison every precaution was taken to prevent disorder.

Beiliss was not released immediately after his acquittal, but was held a prisoner until early yesterday morning. Then he was taken from the penitentiary under cover of darkness and escorted by a strong guard to the Lukinovka brick works where his home is located.

AVENGING SON IS JAILED.

Must Serve Fifteen Years; Couldn't See Blind Mother Beaten.

Mount Holly, N. J., Nov. 12.—"Jersey justice" laid a hard hand on Thomas Baker yesterday, when it sent him to State prison for not less than fifteen years at hard labor because he could not see a man beat his blind mother until her face was wounded.

Baker lived with Hudson Weber, his stepfather, and his mother, at Borton's Landing. He was in the house on July 4, when Weber began to abuse his wife, who is slightless.

She rose to leave the room, to be away from the abuse of her husband, when Weber struck her on her face with his clenched fist. She could not dodge the blow, because she did not see it. As she reeled under the vicious fist her son saw that her face was injured.

Crazed with anger the young man got a shotgun, but found no cartridges. Running to the home of a neighbor, he borrowed two loaded shells, and when asked what he was going to do, he replied:

"I'm going to kill a dog that has just bitten my poor blind mother." With tears in his eyes he ran back to his home, stepped in the doorway and discharged both barrels of the gun at his step-father. They killed Weber almost instantly.

Baker was dressing his mother's wound where her husband had struck her, when the police arrived and arrested him. When Baker was arraigned before Willard P. Voorhees, supreme court justice, today his counsel, Assemblyman Robert Peacock, entered a plea of nonvult. It was believed the circumstances would lead to the discharge of his client.

But Justice Voorhees said the young man should serve not less than 15 years nor more than 30 years at hard labor.

10 Years in Jail, 100 Lashes, $100 Fine.

Cornelius C. Street, a dapper-looking young man, convicted of robbing the home of W. W. Laird, whose wife is a member of the Dupont family, was sentenced yesterday at Wilmington, Del., to twenty lashes, ten years' imprisonment, and fined $100. He will be whipped on the bare back next Saturday along with James Byard and William Reason, negroes, who will each receive a second installment of twenty lashes. These are the negroes whose punishment caused Representative Evans of Montana to introduce a resolution in Congress today against the Delaware whipping post.

CASE GOES TO THE SUPREME COURT

Judge McLemore Rules That Poll Books Must Be Produced.

AN APPEAL IS TAKEN.

Ruling of the Lower Court Suspended Pending Hearing by The Higher Tribunal.

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., Nov. 12.—Walter H. Taylor, of Norfolk, counsel for James V. Trehy, clerk of the courts in Norfolk, presented a petition for an appeal in the case of Peatross against Trehy. Counsel for Peatross who was defeated on the face of the returns demanded to see the books.

Judge Lemore issued a mandamus to compel Trehy to deliver the books and from this Trehy is seeking an appeal.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 12.—Poll books, after being opened by the election commissioners and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court are public documents subject to inspection by any citizen, according to the ruling of Judge James L. McLemore, of the City Circuit Court, upon the petition of R. W. Peatross, for a mandamus compelling James V. Trehy, Clerk of the Corporation Court, to permit him to see the poll books used in the election held here November 4th.

Judge McLemore has entered an order directing Mr. Trehy to allow inspection of the poll books, but upon motion of Mr. Trehy's counsel suspended it until 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon to afford time for an appeal to the Supreme Court. Lawyers representing both sides will present the matter to the Supreme Court not later than Thursday morning.

In the City Circuit Court today James E. Heath, T. D. Savage, and Cadwallader J. Collins appeared for Mr. Peatross. R. Randolph Hicks representing Mr. Trehy. Before the lawyers had concluded their argument Judge McLemore interrupted with the declaration that they need go no further with the debate as to the law affecting the petition.

"It has always been my idea," said the judge "that poll books opened by the commissioners of elections and held in the clerk's office, are public documents and it will now require more than a specious argument to convince me that my view is incorrect. It is a record which belongs to the citizens and in my opinion any citizen has a right to see it. If no one but the officer who has the keeping of the poll books has a right to see them, the books as a record of election would guarantee the voters no protection as it would be possible for commissioners of election to change them in any way they might see fit. The poll books are committed to the clerk, not as his property, but to be kept in trust for the people, and I believe any citizen has a right to inspect them."

In reply to the argument of Mr. Savage, representing Mr. Peatross, as to the legal right of Mr. Peatross to inspect the pool books in connection with his proposed consent of the re-election of James V. Trehy by a majority of one hundred votes in the November elections, R. Randolph Hicks, counsel for Trehy contended that to open the poll books to public inspection would be destructive of the citizens' constitutional right of secret ballot. "If I had been a candidate in an election and you give me free excess to the poll books," he said, "I can come pretty near finding out who voted for me and who for my opponent." Commenting on this argument later Judge McLemore said it was "more specious than real," because it would also be possible to ascertain information of this character of keeping check upon the vote at the polls.

Losing in the fight against the mandamus movement petition, Mr. Trehy's counsel moved for a suspension of the order immediately after the judge had announced his decision.

ODD FELLOWS ASSEMBLE

Members of Order of This City and Vicinity Enjoy Pleasant Evening

As had been anticipated, the visit last night of Grand Master E. Allen to the Odd Fellows of this city, will form an interesting chapter in the history of that organization. Mr. Allen is the head of the Odd Fellows of Virginia. Mrs. Cora E. Benedict, President of the Rebekah Assembly, who was to have been present, was unable to attend on account of sickness in her family.

There was a large turnout of Odd Fellows of Alexandria, while members of the order from neighboring places were also present and mingled with their Alexandria brethren in the interesting and impressive scenes incident to the reception.

Early in the night about twenty-five members of Canton Alexandria No. 1, proceeded to the Hotel Rammel and escorted the Grand Master to Potomac Lodge room on north Columbus street, where the members of the order and their lady friends had gathered. Here the reception, conducted by the Rebekahs, took place. It was an open meeting, many lady friends of the order being present.

W. D. Studds, District Deputy Grand Master, presided and delivered the address of welcome and introduced the Grand Master. The latter delivered an interesting and impressive response, taking for his theme the parable of the Good Samaritan. He handled his subject in a masterly manner and was listened to with close attention.

Rev. J. Lee Allison, of Potomac Lodge, spoke on behalf of that organization. His remarks were well-conceived and delivered in a happy manner.

The visitors were subsequently entertained at an oyster supper by the Rebekahs.

The hour was late when the guests and hosts took leave of each other.

AMERICANS VISIT ANACOSTIA.

A large delegation of members of Alexandria Council Fraternal Order of Americans, attended the anniversary celebration of Anacostia Council No. 16, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, last night. PUBLIC SCHOOL FUNDS

Alexandria Will Receive Small Increase in This Year's Apportionment

This year's apportionment for public schools in Virginia from the direct state school tax has been made among the various counties and cities by the department of public instruction, and the fund will be available within the next fifteen days. The apportionment is based on a $2.124 rate for each school child in the state, the total school population being 616,168. The total fund so far distributed is $1,308,740 83, which is an increase of $69,255.29 as compared with last year.

By the new apportionment Alexandria will receive $7,771.71. The city's apportionment from the literary fund will, of course, augment this fund materially. This amount however, cannot be ascertained at present.

Alexandria last year received from the direct school tax $7,360.44 and $1,729 12 from the literary fund.

Alexandria county will receive $6,168.10 from the direct tax this year.

FINED FOR ANNOYING WOMAN.

Charles Walters, Who Says he Has Wife and Child, Appeals Case.

Richmond, Nov. 12.—Charles Walters, who described himself as a locomotive engineer with a wife and child, was convicted yesterday in police court of annoying Miss Myrtle Herndon in the Virginia motion picture theatre and fined $50.

His counsel, Edgar B. English, declaring no man would be safe if convicted of improper conduct on the uncorroborated testimony of a woman appealed the case to the Hustings Court.

Miss Herndon, a young and unusually pretty girl living in South Richmond, displayed remarkable nerve and self-possession under a long and merciless cross-examination.

Miss Herndon testified she was sitting in the theatre when Walters came in and took the seat next to her. He began to annoy her almost immediately she said, by leaning toward her. Whenever the lights went up he sat right in his seat and paid no attention to her, she told the court, but resumed his objectionable actions every time the lights were dimmed.

When she could stand it no longer Miss Herndon sprang up and using her handbag for a weapon dealt Walters several stiff blows over the head. This caused him to move to a seat in the row in front of her. A few minutes later she had occasion to again resent his actions and this time pulled his hair to show that his attentions were misdirected.

Walters left the theatre after this and went into a haberdashery nearby. Several men in the audience and the manager of the theatre, Thomas Falson, followed him and caused his arrest.

Walters denied every charge made by Miss Herndon, saying he was entirely innocent.

Fortunately members of the crew escaped injury, according to news received here.

The murderer boarded a train and left for parts unknown, but the reward is offered with the hope that the officers may be able to get a trace of the man and bring him back to justice. The county offers a similar rewyard and the sheriff augments the sum by offering $25.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 12.—Aubrey Marable, 3 years old, son of Mrs. Lula Marable, was almost instantly killed Monday afternoon in his home at Ettrick by the accidental discharge of a pistol with which he was playing. Several small companions, too young and frightened to give a very clear story of the accident, were in the room at the time. How the child managed to get the pistol is not known. The ball entered the head through the forehead, causing almost instant death.

Mrs. Marable was out at the time. Neighbors came in to render assistance, but the little fellow was past all aid.

HOW NEWSPAPER MEN AID THE PRESIDENT

This is part of what President Wilson said to the newspaper men when he met them in March, the first of those weekly meetings at the White House:

"I feel that a large part of the success of public affairs depends on the newspaper men—not so much on the editorial writers because we can live down what they say, as upon the news writers, because the news is the atmosphere of public affairs. Unless you get the right setting to affairs—disperse the right impression—things go wrong. The United States just now is at a very critical turning point in respect to public opinion; not in respect of parties, for that is not the part that is most interesting. They may go to pieces or they may hold together. So far as the United States is concerned, it does not make much difference whether they do or not, because a party has no vitality whatever unless it is an embodiment of something real in the way of public opinion and public purpose I. am not interested in a party that is not an embodied program based upon a set of principles; and our present job is to get the people who believe in principle to stand shoulder to shoulder to do things from one side of this continent to the other.

"I do not mean in the least to imply that any of you gentlemen are interested in making trouble. That is not the point. I would be mighty proud man if I could get into your imaginations that you can oblige people, almost, to get together by the atmosphere with which you surround them in the daily news. And the atmosphere has got to come, not from Washington, but from the country. You have got to write from the country in, and not from Washington out. The only way I can succeed is by not having my mind live in Washington. My body has got to live there, but my mind has got to live in the United States, or else I will fail. Now, you fellows can help me and help everybody else by just swathing my mind (and other people's minds in the atmosphere of the thought of the United States. The great advantage that you enjoy is that you represent papers all over the country, and therefore you can import the opinion and the impulses of the country into Washington, and import it after a fashion that nobody else can employ.

"I sent for you, therefore, to ask that you go into partnership with me, that you lend me your assistance as nobody else can, and then after you have brought this precious freight in to Washington, let us try and make true gold here that will go out from Washington. Because nothing better will go out than comes in. It is the old law of compensation, the law of equivalence. In proportion that Washington is enriched, so will the fruition in Washington itself be rich. Now all this is obvious enough to you gentlemen. I am not telling you anything that you did not know before, but I did want you to feel that I was depending upon you, and from what I can learn of you, I think I have a reason to depend with confidence on you to do this thing, not for me, but for the United States, for the people of the United States, and so bring about a day which will be a little better than the days that have gone before us. I think we can cooperate with enthusiasm along that line, and if you agree with me, I shall be very happy."

Judge Crutchfield's Humor.

Richmond is the home of Justice John Jeter Crutchfield, the celebrated "Virginia Judge." Justice Crutchfield rules the Richmond police court with all the authority and originality of a cadi. He is sometimes referred to as "The Cadi," or "Cadi Crutchfield."

"Your honor," spoke up an attorney for the defense of a colored youth accused of burglary, "you know this boy. He lives right around here and this is the first trouble he has ever got into. You know him judge and you know where he comes from."

"Can't say I know where he comes from but I know where he is going." broke in the court, "four months."

"Hit you with a rock?" questioned the court, in a case in which a granite paving block was the chief exhibit and a negro with an undamaged head was the accusing witness. "Let me see! Sergeant"—this to a court attendant, "Just look over that paving block and see if its damaged any. A nigger's head is mighty hard."

The young men were charged with disturbing the peace. They said they were only singing at the time of their arrest, practicing for male quartet concert. "Let me hear you," said the judge. "It may be you can sing and it may be you mistake plain noise for singing."

The four looked at each other. Then they drew themselves up. "Sweet Adeline," wailed the first tenor, and the other three harmonized with "Sweet Adeline."

"Ten dollars fine" broke in the judge in his best heavy bass.

Justice Crutchfield has been on the bench for more than 25 years and the stories of his wit and humor would fill a large book.

The Grandeur of Charlie Carlin.

The Popular Magazine for October says:

"Representative Charles C. Carlin in the National Congress, has a district in Virginia just across the Potomac river from Washington. Among his constituents are many colored people, and one day an old darkey having found his way to the door of the House of Representatives wanted to walk in and talk to Carlin.

"The doorkeeper explained to him that he would have to send in his name. While the old man was waiting for the Congressman to appear he looked up and down the vast corridor in which he stood, gazed at the ornamented ceiling, and glanced at the oil paintings on the walls.

'Fore de Lawd" he finally exclaimed. "s dis hyah Chollie Carlin's awfice?"

MUST BELIEVE IT.

Well Known Alexandria People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Alexandria the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every sufferer of kidney backache, every man, woman or child with kidney trouble, will do well to read the following:

Mrs. Maud M. Simpson, 211 Wilkes street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to my acquaintances during the past two years and do not hesitate to recommend them publicy. I began using them when suffering from pains in my hips and across my back as the result of disordered kidneys. I have also given this remedy to my children for kidney weakness and I find it is good for that trouble. No praise is too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all Dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Earthquake shocks that were perceptible, but not strong enough to do damage, were felt in the western part of Louisville, Ky., yesterday.

Word was received at Savannah, Ga., yesterday of the death of four farmers as the result of a pistol battle at Raines, Ga., late Monday afternoon. The victims were Harvey Smith, Quinn Smith, Troy King, and K. E. Holliday. Theft of one of Holliday's hogs, it is said, led up to a quarrel, which resulted in the tragedy.

A new aviation record for women was set yesterday by Mme. Pallier, who made a flight of 174 miles in France.

Militant suffragette arson squads and bomb throops were at work in several parts of the British Isle early yesterday. The cactus house in Alexandra Park, Manchester containing a collection valued at $50,000, was wrecked by a bomb. Begbroke, a fine mansion near Bristol, was badly damaged by fire.The Bowling and Tennis Club's house at Catford, south east of London, was burned down. On the scene of all three outrages suffrage literature and petroleum cans were found, but no clue to the identity of the criminals.

Mrs. John Patsy was killed and her husband, a wealthy Italian merchant of Berryburg, near Grafton, W. Va., was fatally injured by an explosion which blew their house to pieces yesterday morning. Mrs. Patsy attempted to kindle a fire with a mixture of kerosene and gasoline and an explosion followed.

Six Democratic members of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee after a session lasting for four hours yesterday afternoon practically agreed to report to the Democratic Senate conference Thursday afternoon in favor of reporting a bill embodying most of the features of the currency measures that was passed by the House under the leadership of Representative Carter Glass. The bill recommended will provide for eight regional banks, instead of twelve as the House bill carried. The concession, it is understood, will be approved by the President. The Democrats will stand by the House provision for stock ownership in the reserve associations by the member banks.

The shores of Lakes Superior, Huron, and Erie were strewn last night with the wreckage of a three day gale and snowstorm, which cost the lives of probably threescore persons, turned bottom-up in midlake the 250 foot freighter Regina vessel with its crew, wrecked or grounded numerous other craft, and caused a property loss as yet unestimated, but which will run into the millions. The vessels reported aground with slight or no damage numbered more than 30. On land the storm hit hardest in Cleveland, Ohio, where 21 inches of snow fell, five persons were killed and where $2,000,000 damage was caused to property.

Angered because Nathan Johnson, an aged Baptist preacher, condemned the sale of liquor in the city district three men Monday night tied him to a tree, saturated his head and body with alcohol, forced large quantities of whisky down his throat and escaped. Mr. Johnson is in a critical condition at his home, 8 miles southeast of Independence, a suburb of Kansas City. The attack took place on a lonely road 7 miles southeast of Independence. Mr. Johnson was returning a horse near the end of a small bridge on his way home from church where he had made a prohibition speech. Holding him by the hair one of them said: "Now you old devil, you've been preaching prohibition about here long enough, and if there is one time you go home drunk." The men forced him to drink a large quantity of the liquor and walked away laughing.

The boarding house of Mrs. John Salminen, at Centennial Heights, Calumet, Mich., was wrecked by dynamite yesterday, two strike-breakers being injured. Mrs. Salminen had received several letters containing threats that her home would be destroyed unless she stopped taking strike breakers as boarders.

Edmond A. Trouton, a wealthy landowner of Dublin, Ireland, was robbed of a handbag containing a letter of credit with a balance of $1,250, $150 in cash and some wearing apparel at Union Station in Washington yesterday afternoon. The thief pawned the handbag and it was found less than an hour after the theft in a D street second-hand shop.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.
